

BOND PLAN TO AID POOR GETS COUNTY BOARD APPROVAL

Ask Legislature to Give Co.
Power to Float Bonds;
No Referendum

TAXPAYERS HERE OPPOSE MEASURE

Although reported to have received the unanimous support of Lake county supervisors, the unprecedented action of the board last Friday in voting to recommend to the state legislature that the county be empowered to float a bond issue for the relief of the poor without submitting the issue to a vote of the people, has by no means met with popular approval among the taxpayers who have just been presented with their annual tax bills.

The measure was sponsored by Supervisor William J. Oboe, said to be slated for next year's chairmanship, and the action was brought to the attention of State Senator Ray Paddock and Representatives Lyons, Carroll and Bolger, who are expected to get favorable legislative action at Springfield.

Budget Exhausted.
The spending of the entire annual budget of $35,000 to supply food, clothing and fuel for Lake county poor, and overdrawing the account $13,000, is blamed for the condition. The estimated deficit at the close of the year is $38,000.

Supervisors have pointed out that periods of depression are periodical and that a bond issue such as is now proposed is the only method of providing relief at such times. If the legislature sees fit to vote relief, the bond issue can be paid in ten years, supervisors say, and that the action will not affect the operation of the various other county departments.

The unusual feature of the measure is that of giving supervisors power to bond without a vote of the people, which cannot now be done without an act of the state legislature authorizing it.

WESLEY BLUNT'S LIFE AS SOLDIER TOLD BY BROTHER

Was Last Antioch Survivor of His Company in Civil War

Other information concerning the life of the late J. Wesley Blunt, who passed away at Pasadena, Calif., February 10, has been presented by his brother, Charles E. Blunt, 3537 Beechwood ave., Detroit, Mich., who writes: John Wesley Blunt was born near the city of Rochester, N. Y., February 12, 1843, the son of Peter K. Blunt, and came, with his parents, to Illinois in 1849, settling on a farm near Fox Lake.

J. Charles Blunt, was the sixth child of a family of nine children—Sarah, Ann, Regina, Martin M., Reuben F., Ellen, Augusta, John W., and myself, the only surviving member of the family.

At the commencement of the Civil war, Wesley enlisted for three years in Company F, 37, Illinois Infantry, and was honorably discharged at the expiration of his enlistment with the other residents of Antioch who enlisted at the same time and served in the same company and regiment, as well as I can recall they are Levi J. Simons, Warren Williams, Joseph Haycock, Charles Pullen, Peter Straus, Henry Soules, Charles Hall, William Gallier, Corydon Malby, Arthur Moulton, Gallo Palmer, Edison Howard, James Marm, Collins McBlond, and Hain Ringard. I believe John W. was the last survivor of the company and perhaps of the regiment.

Soon after his discharge from service he was united in marriage to Mary Louise Gallier, of the town of Aron, and for two or three years engaged in farming. He then moved to Linn county, Mo., where he lived many years as a farmer, until he again moved to Palisades Mesa county, Colo., where he engaged in fruit farming. Because of his declining health, the past few winters were spent in California.

He was a staunch member and an ardent worker in the Christian church and has two sons, who are ordained ministers. He leaves twelve children. John Wesley has lived to observe many changes in living.

Philly Mayor Investigates "Flops"

Left, Mayor Harry A. MAN LIVES IN CHURCH; DECLARES PROPERTY REVERTS TO HEIRS

Trustees Seek to Eject Clarence Spiering and Family from Hickory Bldg.

Following futile efforts to eject Clarence Spiering and family from the Millburn Methodist church at Hickory and Millburn roads, the board of church trustees, headed by Emmet King as complainant, have instituted a civil suit against Spiering which will be heard before Justice William H. Reagan here Saturday at 2 p. m.

Spiering and his family moved into the church two weeks ago following the burning of his farm home February 19. Spiering claims that according to the terms of the deed the property is to revert to the heirs of the original owner when it is no longer used for church purposes, and that it is not so used, so rightfully belongs to the heirs.

After seeking advice in Waukegan, the trustees went to Justice Henry Wallenwein who issued a warrant for the arrest of Spiering on a charge of malicious mischief, but he was released on $500 bonds. Spiering, however, continues to occupy the church as a residence.

The trustees were advised this week to take civil action in the matter and the issue of a summons for Spiering to appear here in the forcible entry and detainer suit followed.

Clark Keller of Lake Villa Dies of Diphtheria

Clark Keller, 28, of Lake Villa, passed away at his home Friday evening, March 13, succumbing to the dread malady, diphtheria, after a week of illness.

He was born in Waukegan February 22, 1903, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keller, who at present conduct a lunch room in Lake Villa. For nineteen years he has lived in Lake Villa, and has been occupied as a carpenter for the past few years.

Besides his parents he leaves three sisters, Muriel, Norma and Mabel, and a brother, Vernon.

Brief services were conducted by Rev. Bohl at the Crystal Lake cemetery where burial took place Saturday afternoon.

ANOTHER SALES- MAN IS EMPLOYED BY CHEVROLET CO.

The Whitmore Chevrolet Company is employing the services of another salesman. He is C. D. Norris, of Cleveland, O., formerly sales manager for the Adams Motor Company of Waukegan, a young man of ability, and well-known in Lake county.

Lester "Jimmy" Osmond is ill this week with the mumps.

Since the pioneer days when the soil, in its natural state, required perseverance and hard manual labor before it could be cultivated, Wesley has always done his duty as a citizen and a soldier, and leaves a name and record worthy of his children's or his friends' emulation.

Four Candidates File for Board of Education

Petitions of four candidates for members of the board of education for the Antioch township high school district today were in the hands of the clerk, Principal L. O. Bright. The petitions are those of Helen Osmond, F. O. Hawkins, Warren Robinson, and Frank R. King.

Mrs. Osmond becomes a candidate to fill the unexpired term of her husband, Lester Osmond, who was elected last year but now resigned on account of a post office department ruling that forbids U. S. postal employees from holding office. Mr. Hawkins is a candidate for re-election, while Mr. Robinson and Mr. King are new candidates, both for the full three years term.

D. B. Sablin, for many years a board member and clerk of the district until last year, voluntarily retired with the expiration of his term this year. The holdovers on the 5-member board are G. R. White and Clarence Crowley. Mr. White was chosen president at the organization meeting following election last year.

Election will be held Saturday, April 11, at the high school building.

Farm Boys and Girls Enroll for 4-H Club Projects

Present Medals to Members of Prize Winning Poultry Team

An enthusiastic group of farm youths gathered at the high school Monday evening to enroll in the local 4-H club and to select a project for the year.

Farm Advisor Glickerson, Albert Herman, 4-H club leader, C. L. Kuttill, Antioch high school instructor of agriculture, D. H. Minto, Bert Edwards and Gordon Bonner explained the 4-H work and its value to the boys and girls, and advised them in the choice of projects.

Films on "Successful Hog Raising" and a comic were shown.

Receive Medals.

Medals were presented to Harry Johnson, Norman Barthel and William Yopp, for being the second high team in the national poultry judging contest at the Coliseum show last fall. These boys represented Illinois in competition with thirteen other states. The team was trained by C. L. Kuttill, who is an outstanding man for training judging teams. Harry Johnson was second high individual in the contest.

There are some girls signing up for girls' 4-H club work, but the Farm Bureau is doing nothing with girls' club work as the Home Bureau is in the process of organization and in such cases girls' work is turned over entirely to the Home Bureau.

Meeting Well Attended.

The series of meetings which have been held in the county have had a good attendance and a large number of boys have enrolled in 4-H club work for this year—more in proportion than last year.

The balance of the meetings will be held next week as follows: Monday evening, March 23, St. Mary's hall, Fremont Center; Tuesday evening, March 24, Elm township high school, Lake Zurich; Wednesday evening, March 25, Hawthorn school; Thursday evening, March 26, Gage hall, Graylake. Free movies are shown at 7:45 at these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hughes, of Dean Hill, are the parents of a baby girl, born March 9.

Scarlet Fever Brings Quarantine to Home

Principal L. O. Bright of the Antioch township high school, and his household are in quarantine this week, following the discovery that Miss Alma Grulick, who lives at the Bright home, has scarlet fever.

Dr. H. F. Beebe, health officer, ordered an immediate quarantine to prevent the spread of the disease, and Miss Grulick was taken to the Lake county hospital at Waukegan. Dr. Deering, of the state health department, called here Wednesday, and the physicians advised that Mr. Bright and family remain in quarantine and under observation of the health office the remainder of this week.

MEMBERSHIP IN CO. HOME BUREAU IS INCREASING

The Home Bureau organization will be realized early next month, according to present indications and reports from Miss Lulu Black, temporary home advisor in Lake county, who has spent the week in Lake county, working with groups of women in the Home Bureau membership campaign. A considerable number over 150 have signed.

Girls' 4-H Depends on Women.

Miss Black will spend the week of March 30 in Lake county and hopes that enough can be signed at the end of that time to start the Home Bureau in action.

In order to have girls' 4-H club work this spring, the Home Bureau must be organized in the next few weeks. Girls' club work should begin in May and it is necessary to employ a home advisor to assist with the organization and direction of the work.

WILMOT PIRATES TO PLAY U. S. GIRL CHAMPS

The Wilmot Pirates, rated among the strongest and foremost basketball teams of south Wisconsin, are scheduled to play the Taylor Trunks, the world's champion girls' basketball team, at the Wilmot gymnasium at 8:30 next Tuesday evening, March 24. A preliminary game will be played at 7:15.

The Wilmot Pirates were the winners in the Fox Lake tournament, thus proving their superiority over teams in northeastern Illinois, and were runners-up in the Kenosha district tournament.

The funds received from attendance at this game will be used to send the Pirates to the Wisconsin state amateur basketball tournament at Green Bay.

Channel Lake P. T. A. Has St. Patrick Party

The Channel Lake Parent-Teacher Association held a St. Patrick's Day party at the school building Monday evening. A short program was given, consisting of a play by the children, entitled "The Little Good Folks." Florence Dunford on the violin, Clarence Dunford on the cornet, and their mother at the piano played several selections. Cards were played, the prize winners being Fred Runyard, Warren Robinson, Mrs. Eugene McDougall and Miss Marie McNulty. Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Music was furnished by the Dunford orchestra.

TIFFANY TAKES WRESTLING BOUT

Albert Tiffany delighted Antioch fans when he won the decision over Nick Johnson of Waukegan at the Antioch Palace Friday evening. The bout was played to the finish of the one 9-minute round and two 3-minute rounds. Although both were in danger of being pinned during the match, Tiffany gained an edge on his opponent after the first 9 minutes, gradually tiring him.

Rooney Is Victim In Gang Slaying

FAREWELL PARTY IS GIVEN PETTY

W. C. Petty, county superintendent of rural schools, was honored with a banquet given by the teachers of the Antioch grade school, at the school building, Monday evening.

After the 6 o'clock dinner, toasts were delivered by Mr. Petty, Mrs. Charles Lux and Ralph Clabaugh, the new principal.

Several piano compositions were performed by Miss Eleanor Meyers. Bridge followed, Miss Elizabeth Toussaint and Mr. Petty taking the honors. Before the close of the evening, Mr. Petty was presented with a token of regard from the pupils and teachers by Miss Isabelle Harwood, chairman of the committee in charge.

KENNETH MORTENSEN IS FIRST WINNER IN CHEVROLET CONTEST

James Dunn Sends in 2nd
Most Nearly Correct
Ten Reasons

First prize of $15, offered by the Whitmore Chevrolet Company in a unique contest for selecting the ten most important reasons why "It is wise to choose the new bigger and better Chevrolet 5," was awarded to Kenneth Mortensen, of Antioch, when the prizes were given Tuesday evening. James Dunn won second prize, $10 in cash, and the runners-up were A. C. Atwell, of Lake Villa, Lloyd Atwell, of Lake Villa, and George Dunlap, of Shady Nook.

The interested response of the large number of contestants presented a problem of the best means to obtain fair judging, but the judges, C. E. Shultz, Frank King and S. Boyer Nelson, selected the only absolutely impartial method of naming the winners who were chosen by reason of their checking the greatest number of reasons tallying with the consensus of opinion of all the contestants.

The following ten reasons were agreed upon by the consensus as the most salient features of the new Six, from the 560 checked:

1. It is a six.
2. For average driving, it gives 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline.
3. Each cylinder and valve is surrounded by water, giving uniform cooling.
4. Chevrolet's special moulded brake lining will last over 25,000 miles.
5. The brakes will stop the car from sixty miles an hour in 3 1/2 seconds.
6. All closed bodies are built by Fisher of hardwood and steel—the safest construction known.
7. Chevrolet's Owner's Service policy protects the owner on both parts and labor under the terms of the warranty.
8. Chevrolet has 11,000 service stations in the United States.
9. Chevrolet Six is a product of the General Motors corporation, the largest automotive organization in the world.
10. It is a car to be proud of wherever you go.

CRANDALL LEASES RICHMOND GARAGE

Milton Crandall, formerly connected with the Whitmore Chevrolet Company, has leased the Richmond Garage from Fagel Brothers, and took over the management last Saturday.

He's Gone

Body of Laundry President is Riddled by Shotgun Volley

WAS LABOR LEADER

William J. Rooney, well known resident here, and president of the Chain O' Lakes Laundry & Dry Cleaning company, early today fell a victim to Chicago gangsters and racketeers who escaped in a car, leaving the body of Rooney riddled from shotgun fire.

A woman, who was a witness to the shooting as a car drew near the curb as Rooney was leaving his home, was taken to the identification bureau in the hope that she could identify the assassins by viewing photographs of gangsters.

There were three or four men in the car, according to the woman, and three shots were fired into the body of Rooney as he made an effort to escape when he sighted the killers.

Not involved in Labor Troubles.
Rooney was business agent for the Chicago sheet metal workers union, but he had not been involved in any labor troubles, union officials declared today when questioned regarding the killing.

Two years ago Rooney was the United States representative of American labor at the International convention in London. He was chosen president of the Chain O' Lakes Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co. last December. For a number of years he has been the owner of Rooney Dells farm, near Rock Lake.

TOWN TEAM AND ST. PETER'S TO ENTER A. A. U. TOURNEY

St. Peter's Loses to Church
Tournament Champs by Three Points

The town team and St. Peter's team plan to enter the Central States amateur athletic union basketball championship tournament to be held in Chicago under the auspices of the Herald and Examiner. Over 300 teams will be entered in this tourney, which begins next Monday. Drawings have not yet been made.

Loss to Champs.
Tournament championship hopes thus far have borne no fruit. The St. Peter's church team was defeated in a closely contested game with the M. E. church team of Elgin, 25-22, on the latter's home floor, Thursday evening, when they played their first game of the church team tourney of northern Illinois.

The Antioch boys led until the last quarter, but were unable to slip over the baskets needed to win in the last few minutes. O'Haver, Sheehan and Keane were the scoring men, with Walsh hot on free throws. Thompson was the only one of the boys who was unable to make the trip. The team came next to the farthest distance of any of the contesting squads.

Loosing by only three points to the M. E. team, which came through the finals to be champions, marks St. Peter's as among the best of the twenty-two teams entered. When challenged to a 3-game series at Antioch on a neutral floor, by the St. Peter's team, the Methodist team refused.

The boys played a consolation game with Rock Island Friday evening, defeating them 45-15. The remainder of the time was spent in playing volleyball and hand ball in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. They returned Saturday morning.

Town Team Loses.
The town team's attempt to crash into the championship place in the Lake County Independent amateur tournament sponsored by the Waukegan Independent, also proved unfortunate, as they were defeated by the American Steel company of Chicago.

The boys played Friday evening at Fox Lake high school, which more interesting, featured hands frequently, and minutes, when for one play more, they took a 30-24 lead. The boys played a consolation game at Fox Lake last night, losing to the visitors, 40-23.

St. Peter's team, of St. Peter's church, lost to the town team, 25-22, on Thursday evening, when they played their first game of the church team tourney of northern Illinois.

A MAGNIFICENT WORK

The nation's schools, aided by police departments and other organizations, have done a magnificent work in educating children in accident prevention.

In 1922, according to Albert W. Whitney, of the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, 37,912 adults were killed in accidents in the United States. In 1928, 76,476 were killed—an increase of 32 per cent.

In contrast to this, 18,198 children died through accident in 1922 with a slight increase in the two years following. Since then, the rate has gone steadily downward, with the result that if child deaths had increased at the same rate as adults, 6,000 more children would be killed each year than is now the case.

In other words, safety work is now saving the lives of 6,000 children annually.

The query naturally arises as to why adults—who are as susceptible to instruction as children—should show steady increases in the accident rate. Hazards naturally increase as the world grows more complicated—but they increase just as much for children. The reason for the discrepancy is that adults lack the educational environment of children.

Just how the problem will be solved is difficult to say, but, as Mr. Whitney points out, it is good to recognize its imminence and seriousness. And the pessimism caused by our general accident records is partially alleviated by a survey of the magnificent educational work done among school children—a work that cannot be measured in terms of dollars.

SENATOR BAKER IN NEW TAX MOVE

Now we hear from another state senator who has discovered a means whereby he can pour additional millions of dollars supposedly into the state treasury by choking the autoists tighter, squeezing extra taxation in the form of personal tax on automobiles. Senator Charles Baker of Rockford, but whose residence is really in Monroe Center, is the proponent of a bill ready for introduction that would exact from the already heavily-laden autoist more money for the pleasure of his owning an automobile.

"The bill is a huge joke and one that would really fill a comic strip," declared St. Mayer, president of the Automobile Club of Illinois. If Senator Baker is looking for glorifying acts we might suggest a few that would really fit in with present day conditions, rather than exerting any effort in forcing more "tax honey" down our throats.

MUCH LAW MEANS MUCH LAW-BREAKING

In discussing the political mania in this country for trying to remedy problems by the passage of a "new law," by the establishment of a new regulatory board or commission or by handing out public funds in an endeavor to benefit one group of citizens at the public expense, a keen student of economic affairs recently said:

"We allow disappointments in unachieved objectives to ruin our perspective; we become disgusted with further attempts at reconciliations of differences between parties and accept the alternative of legislative enactment to impose a superior force on unreconciled parties, which leads only to bad faith, long delay in judicial interpretation and economic distress with all its consequent hatreds and fears. And so the cycle begins anew. We need patience and much fortitude to undo the stupidity of the past."

More Than Million in Twenty States Fed by Red Cross Volunteers

Hot School Lunches and Balanced Rations Given to Drought Victims—Seed Programs Instituted on Wide Scale

More than 1,000,000 persons in 362 drought-stricken counties of 20 States came under the care of the American Red Cross in what developed into the most extensive relief operations in half a century of ministering to stricken humanity.

Measures to lessen the severity of the blow inflicted by drought were taken as early as last September, when seed was distributed to more than 58,000 families for the planting of rye and other pastures, and to more than 27,000 families for the planting of kitchen gardens. The expenditure for this purpose amounted to $226,360. Green vegetables were made available up to the first of January.

Early in February another Red Cross garden program got under way and 607,000 packages of seed were distributed in 15 states. Quarter-acre plots were planted to beans, peas, cabbage, carrots, collard, sweet corn, kale, lettuce, mustard, okra, onions, peas, spinach, squash, tomatoes and turnips. Once again were farm families given the opportunity to participate in their own salvation.

A comparatively mild winter contributed to the success of the Spring and Fall seed campaigns. Many habitual single-croppers were introduced to the advantages of kitchen gardens, balanced cropping and balanced diet. Numerous land-owners have expressed the opinion that this constitutes the one apparent blessing to come out of the drought catastrophe. The United States Department of Agriculture and the local county agricultural agents co-operated in making this part of the relief operations outstandingly successful.

Balanced Meals Served

Red Cross feeding was aimed at adequacy and scientific correctness, as well as simple economy. In large numbers of schools, where children were found to be attending with little or nothing in their lunch boxes, hot meals were served at noon. A typical menu consisted of vegetable soup and bread one day; thick beef soup or stew with vegetables another day; cocoa or milk and cheese, peanut butter, or jam sandwiches, a third day.

In some places where lunches were not served in the schools, but were provided for in the regular food orders, each family having school children received extra staples for school lunches including peanut butter, raisins, prunes and tomatoes. Red Cross nutritionists instructed mothers in the preparation of lunches.

County health officers and private physicians commended the adequacy of rations procured on orders issued by Red Cross chapters, which were filled at local stores. Besides the usual staples, such as corn meal, flour, lard, meat, beans and potatoes, such items as canned salmon, cabbage, tomatoes, vegetables and milk were provided, each order being adapted to the special needs of the family for whom it was issued. Where pellagra threatened, eggs, yeast and other preventives were given.

Thousands of Volunteer Workers. Many thousands of volunteers, through their local Red Cross chapters, gave freely of their time, experience and efforts, as in other Red Cross disaster operations. They searched out needy cases in their communities, many persons being restrained from asking assistance because of pride. Chapter committees investigated circumstances, distributed food and clothing.

More than 500 carloads of foodstuffs were contributed. These were given free haulage by railroads. Farmers of more fortunate sections embraced the opportunity to help the pastoral consists of the affected area. Shipments ranged from live poultry to fish, from grains to grapefruit. Carloads of flour, eggs, beans, vegetables, onions, rice, corn and mixed vegetables were included.

As the result of co-ordinated Red Cross chapter efficiency, not one authenticated case of starvation as a result of drought has been uncovered.

Large quantities of new and used clothing were distributed. In direct consequence many school children resumed their studies who had been kept at home for lack of sufficient protection from the elements. In some instances, rural schools that had been closed were enabled to reopen as a result of Red Cross relief work.

States involved were: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia.

Many of these States had been hard hit by a succession of floods, crop failures, low prices and economic depression, and drought constituted a climax to the cycle of distress.

"Wherever I went," wrote one observer, "I made a point of asking what would have happened if the Red Cross had not been able to respond. Invariably scattered pilots, from leading citizens, came the answer that undoubtedly there would have been many deaths directly from starvation, with epidemics preying upon the undernourished."

Write of Enjoying Florida Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Selter send greetings from Miami, "the magic city." They write: For the past two months we have enjoyed Miami, its activities, sports and recreation; the beach and ocean breeze, beneficial for health and pleasure; the park with its tropical scenery, overlooking Biscayne Bay; the deep sea fishing and river cruising; the West Flagler dog kennel races, and the Dade county fair of Florida now in session. We enjoyed the church services and lodge meetings, and found the Miamians courteous and hospitable.

We are leaving all this behind, going from here March 21 to West Palm Beach, Roseland, St. Augustine, Jacksonville and Chattanooga, hoping to reach home by the middle of April.

WOMAN'S CLUB ADDRESSED ON SUBJECT OF GARDENING

Mrs. Elann Clark, of Waukegan, addressed the Woman's Club on "Gardening" at their meeting held in the agricultural rooms of the high school Monday afternoon. Thirty-three members of the club were present, six guests, and a number of girls from the domestic science department of the high school.

Mrs. Clark, who is thoroughly conversant with her subject, having spoken before those present at the recent flower show in Chicago, gave a very enjoyable discussion of vegetable and flower gardening, which she clarified with slides. The pictures of the rare flowers which grow among the Waukegan sand dunes proved particularly interesting.

The hostesses were Mrs. Barney Tricker, Mrs. Fred Hawkins and Mrs. E. O. Hawkins.

MOOSE INITIATE FOUR MEMBERS

Four new members were initiated into the L. O. M. Monday evening by the Kenosha degree team, instead of the eighteen as was planned. However the remainder are ready to be taken into the lodge at the next initiation. The Monday evening event was well attended by local as well as by North Chicago, Waukegan, Highland Park and Woodstock representatives.

FRIENDS ARE GUESTS OF MRS. CLARA FELTER

Mrs. Clara Felter entertained a number of friends at 500 on Friday afternoon. These awarded prizes were Mrs. Frank Wood, of Lake Villa, Mrs. Evann Kay and Mrs. Nels Nelson.

500 CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. DIBBLE

Mrs. Frank Dibble entertained the members of the Thursday 500 club at her home last week. Four tables of 500 were played, the honors being awarded to Mrs. William Osmond, Mrs. John Brogan and Mrs. Nels Nelson.

MRS. CLARK ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday bridge club of which Mrs. Ernest Clark is a member met at her home this week. After three tables of bridge had been played, the prizes were awarded to Mrs. S. M. Wallace and Mrs. Evann Kay.

MRS. RADTKE HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday bridge club was entertained at the home of Mrs. H. A. Radtke this week. Those winning prizes were Mrs. O. E. Huchmelster and Mrs. Charles Dowles.

PARENTS ATTEND P. T. A. PARTY

The number of parents and other persons attended the card party given by the P. T. A. at the grade school Friday evening. Ten tables of bridge, 500 and bunco were played, with refreshments served afterwards by the committee. First prize winners in bridge were Mrs. Roy Williams and Joseph Panawski; second winners, Mrs. W. W. Wurrinor and Dr. R. D. Williams. First prizes in 500 were awarded to Mrs. O. E. Hennings and G. G. Teod; the bunco prize was won by Cheryl Smith.

D. G. A. R. TO MEET MONDAY EVENING

The next regular meeting of Fortessa Monroe, No. 3, N. D. of G. A. R., will be held in their hall Monday evening, March 23. Members are requested to be present.

ALL MAKE MERRY ON ST. PATRICK'S NIGHT

If the more the merrier makes an affair a success, then the St. Patrick's card party and dance sponsored by the dramatic club of St. Peter's church Tuesday evening was a success, as over 250 were present. Forty-seven tables of cards and bunco were played, the honors being won in bunco by Howard Strang, M. Malek, and a cut for third; Mrs. J. Pacini, Evelyn Hennings, and a cut for third; in bridge by Miss Cornelia Roberts, Mrs. Robert Wilton, Mrs. Arthur Tricker, Fred Hackett, Lester Osmond and Edward Vos; in 500 by Juanita Nickerson, Mrs. Alice Nelson, Mary Chase,

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Substance" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 15.

The Golden Text was, "Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase" (Proverbs 3:9).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell there shall die in like manner: but our salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished" (Isaiah 51:8).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key in the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The objects glorified by the physical senses have not the reality of substances. They are only what mortal belief calls them" (p. 311).

LEGAL AUTO KNOTS

Conducted by the legal department
AUTOMOBILE CLUB OF ILLINOIS

This column is at the disposal of our readers who may be confronted with knotty legal problems pertaining to the use and operation of their automobile. Write your questions to "Ask Me" Editor, care of this paper and they will be answered in a forthcoming issue. Enclose a stamped envelope for an immediate reply.

1. Can a girl 14 years old drive a car in this state if accompanied by the owner? Ella, Peoria.

ANS.: Yes.

2. An automobile driver in our town was driving on an icy street and in approaching a stop sign with the red lights against him, applied his brakes, the car skidded and went up over the curb onto the sidewalk and killed a man waiting for a street car. Is the driver responsible for damages for the loss of the man's life?

L.A.C.

ANS.: The answer will depend entirely upon the manner in which the driver was operating the car as he approached the stop sign. If he was driving recklessly he would certainly be liable. If he was driving in a careful manner he would not be liable. Careful driving requires a greater degree of care on an icy street than when the street is dry.

3. Where cities in Illinois have different speed laws other than the state law, must the autoist obey the laws of the various towns or must he obey the State law?

Puzzled.

ANS.: The State law supercedes all town regulations as to speed.

4. I was struck by a car in which three persons were riding in the front seat. Do you think this would make a good case for me? C. W. Howard.

Gordon Martin, of Lake Villa, is now employed at the Chain O' Lakes laundry plant. He began his duties Monday morning.

Guy Ellis spent from Sunday until Tuesday in Chicago.

Mrs. William Keulman entertained her sister, Mrs. Charles Schultz, of Bristol, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Sears, of Union Grove, Saturday.

George Steffey, of Channel Lake, was an Antioch visitor Tuesday.

Henry Nottelman entertained his two brothers, George and John, of Oshkosh, Wis., from Thursday until Sunday. George Nottelman left Sunday for a trip to Germany.

Mrs. Robert Webb returned Saturday from a visit to Harrisburg, Ill.

Mrs. William Rosling, Miss Hilma Rosling and Miss Dorothy Brogan, spent Monday in Chicago.

Mrs. G. Whitmore, who has been visiting at the home of her son, G. A. Whitmore, during the winter months, returned to her home in Pembroke, Ontario, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haley and family moved from their home on Ida ave. to Lake Villa this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Radtke spent Sunday in Kenosha with Mrs. Radtke's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Smilde.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Peters returned to their home here Sunday after a 2-weeks' visit with relatives in southern Illinois.

How to play Bridge AUCTION or CONTRACT

by Wynne Ferguson
Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGES"

Copyright, 1930, by Hoyle, Jr.

ARTICLE No. 10

We are all familiar with the play of discarding a losing card from one hand in a winning card led from the other. Any good player playing the two hands in a suit declaration sees the opportunity of saving a trick in this way.

The object of discarding a losing card on a loser is not, however, so apparent. At first sight it is difficult to see what can be gained or how a trick can be saved. The play, however, can be very effective when it strips the declarer of the only suit in which an opponent can get in to give his partner a ruff, and in some cases it may be the only play to secure the contract or game.

The following three examples illustrate this play very clearly:

Example No. 1

Spades — 4, 3	Spades — none
Hearts — K, 10, 3, 4, 3	Hearts — Q, 9, 6, 2
Diamonds — K, Q, J	Diamonds — 9, 6, 5, 4, 2
Clubs — J, 4, 3	Clubs — A, 7, 6, 5

Spades — A, 8, 7, 5	Spades — none
Hearts — A, J, 8, 7	Hearts — Q, 9, 6, 2
Diamonds — 8	Diamonds — 9, 6, 5, 4, 2
Clubs — K, Q, 10, 9	Clubs — A, 7, 6, 5

Spades — K, Q, J, 10, 9, 6, 2	Spades — none
Hearts — none	Hearts — Q, 9, 6, 2
Diamonds — A, 10, 7, 5	Diamonds — 9, 6, 5, 4, 2
Clubs — 8, 2	Clubs — A, 7, 6, 5

No score, rubber game. 2 bid "Three Spades," which secured the contract. At Contract, Y would bid four spades over Z's original three spades.

A opened the king of clubs and, despite B's come-on signal with the seven, then led the eight of diamonds. He saw he could down the contract if he could make a small trump in addition to his two aces and two club tricks. Z realized the probability of the diamond being a singleton and that he must at all costs prevent B getting the lead or the game was gone. There was only one possible method of doing this, and even that was dependent on the position of the ace of hearts. At trick No. 3, therefore, Z led dummy's king of hearts and, on B playing small, discarded his remaining club. No defense by A and B could then save the game.

Example No. 2

Spades — J, 7	Spades — none
Hearts — 7, 6, 4, 3	Hearts — Q, 10, 9, 8, 5
Diamonds — 10, 8	Diamonds — A, K, J, 6, 4, 3
Clubs — A, K, 10, 7, 3	Clubs — Q, 8

Spades — A, 6, 4, 3	Spades — none
Hearts — 2	Hearts — Q, 10, 9, 8, 5
Diamonds — Q, 9, 8	Diamonds — A, K, J, 6, 4, 3
Clubs — J, 9, 5, 4, 2	Clubs — Q, 8

Spades — K, Q, 10, 9, 8, 5, 2	Spades — none
Hearts — A, K	Hearts — Q, 10, 9, 8, 5
Diamonds — 7, 2	Diamonds — A, K, J, 6, 4, 3
Clubs — 6	Clubs — Q, 8

A leads the two of hearts and Z now stops to count the opponents' hands. The heart lead obviously is a singleton because A has denied the suit and must be opening his highest card of it. At least ten, probably eleven, red cards can be placed in B's hand, and A probably holds all the unseen trumps. Z's problem is to prevent A ruffing his two winning hearts, and the solution does not seem easy. However, Z's first play must be to discard one of his losing diamonds on a winning club, and he leads accordingly. On the second round of clubs B plays the queen. There is now a chance that B has no more clubs and no trump, and Z must therefore play a losing club and discard his last diamond. This throws the lead to A and effectively prevents B from getting in again to give A a heart ruff. Z has now only to draw the adverse trumps to go game.

AUCTION BIDDING:
No score, first game. Z, "One Spade"; A, "No Bid"; Y, "Two Clubs"; B, "Two Hearts"; Z, "Two Spades"; A, "No Bid"; Y, "No Bid"; B, "Three Diamonds"; Z, "Three Spades"; A, "No Bid"; Y, "No Bid"; B, "Four Diamonds"; Z, "No Bid"; A, "No Bid"; Y, "Four Spades"; B, "No Bid"; Z, "No Bid"; A, "Five Diamonds"; Y, "No Bid"; B, "No Bid"; Z, "Five Spades," which A doubled.

CONTRACT BIDDING:
Z, as dealer, should bid three spades. A should pass and Y should bid four spades. B is now in a position where he knows that Y-Z have a game in spades, so is justified in making a five diamond bid. Z should bid five spades, which A will double. The play then follows as in Auction.

Example No. 3

Spades — 7, 5	Spades — 4
Hearts — A, 8, 5, 2	Hearts — J, 7, 6
Diamonds — A, K, Q, 10, 9, 4	Diamonds — 5, 3
Clubs — 9	Clubs — A, 8, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2

Spades — J, 9, 6, 2	Spades — 4
Hearts — Q, 9, 8, 7, 3	Hearts — J, 7, 6
Clubs — K, J, 7	Clubs — A, 8, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2

Spades — A, K, Q, 10, 8, 3	Spades — 4
Hearts — K, 10, 3	Hearts — J, 7, 6
Diamonds — 8, 6	Diamonds — 5, 3
Clubs — Q, 10	Clubs — A, 8, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2

AUCTION BIDDING:
No score, rubber game. Z bid two spades, A passed. Y bid three diamonds and B passed. Z bid three spades and all passed.

CONTRACT BIDDING:
Z, as dealer, should bid one spade, as his hand does not contain the quick trick strength (four and one-half tricks) to justify a "two bid" at Contract. A should pass and Y should bid three diamonds. B should pass and Z should now bid four spades. All pass and the play follows as in Auction. Note that no slam is bid in the hand, even though made in the play. This happens frequently in Contract. Many slams are possible in play that are not possible in the bidding.

A had the choice of opening the heart or club suit and correctly led the four of hearts. Z won the first trick in his own hand, with the king and led three rounds of spades. He then led three rounds of diamonds, discarding his ten of clubs on the third round. On the lead of the ten of diamonds, Z discarded his queen of clubs and A is forced to trump with the top trump. In other words, Z was thus able to discard a loser on a loser. By this play, he makes sure of a little slam, irrespective of A's next play, for he has the ace of hearts as a re-entry and a good diamond on which to discard his losing heart.

The foregoing examples of discarding a loser on a loser should be carefully studied. If they are thoroughly understood they will win many a trick in the future.

TREVOR WOMAN IS HURT IN WRECK

Body of Ambrose Runyard Reposes in Liberty Cemetery

Mrs. Johnson is slowly recovering from a broken rib sustained in an auto accident last Thursday which occurred while she was on the way to Chicago in company with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Corriu, of Antioch.

After several weeks' illness with pneumonia, Ambrose Runyard departed this life Thursday morning, at 1:30, at his home at Rock Lake.

Mr. Runyard was born in Dorsetshire, England, June 27, 1863. He came to America at the age of 3 with his parents. He spent his boyhood at the farm home, near Wilmet.

He was twice married. His former wife, who was Miss Amanda McFarland, and their daughter, Elizabeth, preceded him in death many years ago. One son, Eugene, survives. He later married Miss Nellie Doroy, who with four sons survive him. He also leaves two brothers, James, of Wilmet, and Walter, who resides on the old farm near Wilmet.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Methodist church at Antioch, of which he was a member fifty-one years, with Rev. Philip T. Bohl, pastor, officiating. Mr. Runyard has chosen his six nephews for his pall bearers, and also the hymns, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Lead, Kindly Light," which he wished sung at his funeral. Interment was in Liberty cemetery, by the side of his former wife and daughter.

FAIR WEATHER AHEAD

By O. A. Whitmore
To the sea-faring man, a storm is an event which tests his endurance and stamina to the uttermost. As the storm approaches, hatches are battened down, movable objects are lashed below or lashed fast to the deck. The course is set to keep the vessel out of the trough of the sea and prevent capsizing. The pumps are manned. Down in the hold, stokers and engineers labor with feverish energy. Up on the bridge, the captain and his officers direct the battle with the elements. No time for rest, when any moment may prove crucial. Then the storm subsides, although the sea does not go down at once. The waves still lash the ship and look her to and fro. But from the look-out aloft in the crow's nest comes the cry, "Fair weather ahead!"

The sea of business is still turbulent. Those of us on the bridge or in the engine room continue to feel the effects of the storm. But those aloft in the post of look-out have observed the clearing sky. Business is improving. Slowly, it is true. In the long run slow improvement avoids the repercussions of a swift boom. Those who will benefit by the betterment of business conditions will set their course in obedience to the message, "Fair weather ahead."

DIVISION

By Philip T. Bohl
A well known fraternity has suggested the following division of daily time: Eight hours in pursuit of a vocation, eight hours in refreshment and sleep, and the remaining eight in diversion and the aid of worthy distressed brothers.

The problem of suitably dividing our time is one that is not easily solved. In the average vocation there is enough to be done to keep one busy the full twenty-four hours, but there is truth in the saying, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

We sometimes get the idea that all our time and possessions belong solely to ourselves, to be used as we may desire—but this is not true. Those about us have a right to part of our interest, time and possessions. A man owes to the government a certain percentage of his property each year in the form of taxes. He also owes a part of his time and life, if his government demands it in the time of war. In the final analysis, neither a man nor his property belongs to himself alone. One of the New Testament writers has said, "Ye are not your own, ye are bought with a price."

This same problem carries over to the home relations, in the division of time in such a way as to have time left for those in the home. There is nothing a boy wants so much as the companionship of his father, and it is a wise father who divides his time so that he will have some for his children. Blessed is that father, for great shall be his reward.

The community in which we live also has a right to some interest and time. No individual is justified in allowing business to monopolize his time and energy at the expense of the welfare of the community. If every resident gave the interest which is owed to civic enterprises there would be less complaint, and it is usually the man who does the least that is the most critical.

Every man likewise owes a debt of allegiance to some religious organization. The benefits derived from the contributions of Christianity are many. We sometimes forget that it was religious rather than economic motives that brought the early settlers to America. It was the early missionaries who pushed the frontier lines to the west of the colonies, in an attempt to bring Christianity to the Indians. Wherever the church went schools sprang up, for the early clergy were the teachers and educational promoters; they are the fathers of our present day education systems. Christianity has given the motive power for all great moral reforms; it is overwhelmingly attacking problems of evil and injustice, for Christianity creates dissatisfaction with existing evil conditions. So great is our debt to Christianity every individual owes some allegiance to some religious organization of the community.

We are given 168 hours each week to spend as we desire. Surely it is a rare individual who cannot divide his time so as to spend at least one of these 168 hours in worship, time, talents and possessions were given by the great giver of all life and we owe Him, as we do our families and our government, a part of these possessions which we call our own.

Syndicate System

Independent System

There are two maps illustrated above, the one representing Syndicate Business and the other Independent Business. The Syndicate Business pictures the centralized distribution centers of the Nation. This we shall illustrate further as direct distribution of money. The Independent System pictures distribution from every community in the Nation. This we shall illustrate as indirect distribution of money.

The Syndicate System gives you a very clear picture of how we are now in the center of a great economic depression. It is not only the price wars that have brought on this depression, or business cycles, as a great many economists say, but, as pictured above, centralized business causing a direct flow of currency.

The Independent System gives you a clear picture of how, through the indirect flow of money, we have the utmost flow of money or prosperity.

We shall give both systems credit for buying from the same producers and having the same class of outlets for their business. When doing business with the syndicate at their outlet, that outlet immediately sends the money direct to its central headquarters. Here the money is sent direct to the producers. In this method it prevents a free circulation of money. The Independent System also buys from the producer, but his money goes back through everybody's hands indirectly, giving everyone the use of that money, this method making a free circulation of money or prosperity for everyone.

We might phrase this in "The Wealth of a Nation Is the Money on Hand, but the Prosperity of a Nation Is the Hands on the Money." Under the Syndicate System money is working towards one hand; under the Independent System hands are working towards the money.

The more our people do business with the Syndicate System, the more direct our money will flow, but the more our people do business with the Independent System, the more scattered our wealth will be.

OF LINE FORM THE
FINE SILHOUETTEIt is the Foundation Upon
Which Charm of Color
Is Overlaid

In silhouette. How many women are there who could be cast attractively in silhouette form—in uncompromising black and white? Very few.

Consider yourself. Are your arms rounded without being flabby? Are your hands well cared for? Do your neck and shoulders merge with grace? Is your chin able to refuse any suggestion of twin? Does your hair becomeingly to your head? How about your forehead—would a loop of hair conceal its protrusion? Have you found the neatest hair-line for your neck? Are your bust, waist and hips in proportion? Do your shoes enhance the line of your foot and ankle? Are your lower limbs aesthetically? Are you clothed to accent your good points and minimize the bad?

Let us hope that you do not fall in all of these silhouette requirements, but doubtless there are many points which would well bear improvement. It cannot all be done overnight—weeks of patient and persistent labor may be demanded.

Yet it is surprising what might be done "overnight." This is particularly true of one's attire and hair arrangement. A thorough session with the hand mirror and the dresser glass,

What is little sister wearing this year when she ventures out into the cool dawn on Easter morn to gather the eggs the bunny has left for her? Her coat this spring will be just as smartly tailored and belted as her older sister's, yet it retains its youthful style. These tweed coats which are being worn again are ideal for the youngster, being serviceable for play-time wear.

In this season of sneezes and sniffles, the ordinary handkerchief is a prolific source of infection, but have you seen the new, hemstitched tissue handkerchiefs? so inexpensive they can be discarded after using, but not a bit like the old-style paper affair! They come in pastel shades and their soft texture is a real relief to the suffering nose.

In the cold light of day, often reveals a state of affairs that one had no knowledge of. Truly, in some respects, we are better known to our friends than to ourselves. If one has an inkling that an ear exposed would add a degree of distinction, an experiment of that type of hairdress might disclose real possibilities.

Correct posture may be all that is needed to straighten that shoulder equinoxe, or, conversely, a moderately high neckline on the gown or a necklace of proper length may hide the too long and thin neck.

After the silhouette line has been achieved, then attention may be turned to color.

A woman completely without vanity must be a pretty dead person, don't you think?

Spring Fever and Lack of Appreciation

Spring is famed for its effect upon youth, but few consider that it may bring back memories to the mother of other springs when she wasn't harassed with the care and management of a family and home.

The apathy occurring in the spring of the year, when the first warm days drive by, the birds fly north, and the atmosphere is heavy with awakening life, goes by the name of spring fever.

It's a funny world, isn't it? No close of persons escape that fact. It is not only peculiar, but it is really funny and interesting.

When a mother is dissatisfied with the activities within the scope of her horizon, it is time she took a vacation and discovered that other parts of the world are just as funny as her own.

One circumstance which causes so many mothers to believe the world is funny, is that their devotion, which may amount almost to martyrdom, is unappreciated. The family just takes her giving spirit for granted until it is withdrawn, and then wakes up to

If she returns, pepper, snapper, more assertive, and less inclined to bear the brunt of everyone's woes, the family actually seems to afford her more respect and consideration than before. And this, too, is a funny thing, some mothers are apt to opine. Yet it is true. Human beings are contrary creatures, and can bear to give as much as they receive. You, and like it too.

Food for Party Guests

Attractive Refreshments
Are Often the Secret of Home Socials

THE clever home entertainer knows that the right kind of refreshments, and the right manner of serving them, are going to determine the success of millions of women's parties this winter.

The following "bridge" party menu, for a noon-day luncheon and for afternoon refreshments, are simple to prepare, and they are especially suitable for dainty and tasty serving.

Bridge Luncheon
Layered Cheese and Apple Salad
Hot Buttered Rolls
Sweet Sliced Dill Pickles
Coconut Cake

Tee with Lemon Mints
Layered Cheese and Apple Salad
is made as follows:
1 package lemon gelatin; 1 pint boiling water; 2 tablespoons lemon juice; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 red apple, cut in 1/4 in. dice; 1 teaspoon sugar; 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese; 1/2 cup walnut meats, broken.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice and salt. Combine apple, sugar, dash of salt and remaining 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold apples into 1/2 of gelatin mixture. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Beat remaining gelatin with rotary egg beater until of consistency of whipped cream. Fold in cheese and nuts. Pour over firm first layer. Chill until firm. Serve in squares on crisp lettuce with mayonnaise.

Afternoon Refreshments
Assorted Condensed
Tee with Lemon Sliced Nuts
Orange Charlotte
Cookies

To make the assorted canapés: Slice white bread thin, toast slightly, cut in rounds, using a small cookie cutter. On each round of toast place a small bit of mayonnaise, a crosswise section of sour pickle, another bit of mayonnaise, then a shrimp.

Slice white bread thin, toast lightly, cut bread into oblong strips, 1 1/2 by 2 inches. Spread each piece with deviled ham, garnish with a border of small gherkins, sliced thinly crosswise.

Orange charlotte is made by using:

1 package orange gelatin; 1 1/2 cups boiling water; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 1/4 cup orange marmalade; 1/2 cup cream, whipped.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Chill. When slightly thickened, beat with rotary egg beater until of consistency of whipped cream. Add salt. Fold in marmalade and cream. Pile in sherbet glasses. Chill until firm.

TOPPY'S TRAVELS

Synopsis: Topsy leaves home to follow his onary. After many adventures, he and his friends, Mr. Frog and Toy, the dewdrop, cause the Cushions to fight the Pillows, their enemies. Thus they hope to rescue their Cloud-Queen, whose land is invaded by the Pillows. Topsy and Mr. Frog enter a secret room with a pool, where the Cloud-Queen had read secrets. Mr. Frog and Topsy dive into the pool. Continue:

After Mr. Frog had returned from the tunnel, he watched Topsy for a while without speaking. Topsy did not see him, so absorbed was he in not thinking.

"How did you get here?" Mr. Frog asked slyly, as he stepped forth from the tunnel.

Topsy swung around hastily, and say, Mr. Frog, "Oh, I'm so glad to see you," he cried joyously.

"I asked you a question," Mr. Frog stated.

"What? Oh!" Topsy sighed. Mr. Frog hadn't changed. Topsy must have imagined that the sparkling water would make him more friendly. "I fell in," he said then, in answer to the question.

"But I told you to stay there," said Mr. Frog, coldly.

Topsy almost contradicted him, but events had been happening so queerly that he held his tongue, and said only, "When?"

"Before I went into the tunnel. Did you not see me?"

"I thought I did," Topsy answered. "But you were beckoning to me."

"Never mind, never mind," Mr. Frog's mood had changed again.

"What did you find in the tunnel?" Topsy asked.

"Nothing," Mr. Frog replied shortly. "That must be the end of that."

"I thought Topsy, but about he said, 'Are you going back up? How will I get home?'"

"You won't," the answer frightened Topsy, as that he asked the question which he had been asking all through his travels, "But what are we going to do?"

"That depends," Mr. Frog answered calmly.

"Well?" queried Topsy in exasperation. "Upon what?"

"A bit of metal," was the only reply he received.

"Now I know just as much as I did before," thought Topsy helplessly.

"What did you say?" asked Mr. Frog.

"Nothing, but I was thinking a lot," Topsy answered, recognizing no humor in his words.

"What were you thinking about," Mr. Frog asked lastly.

So Topsy told him, but Mr. Frog only remarked, "You never did know very much, so it makes no difference."

"No," the boy agreed. "I suppose it doesn't." And with that he turned his back upon Mr. Frog, and peered into the tunnel. Taking a step forward, he was in the tunnel, and out of the water. He tried to turn his head, to look back for Mr. Frog, but his head would not turn, and his feet would not stop.

"Where am I going?" he cried in a panic. Mr. Frog!

"Yes?" And there was Mr. Frog, hopping along by his side, and looking curiously up into his face.

"Mr. Frog, I can't stop. I am being led," he shouted wildly.

"Ah," crooned the Frog, "I understand now."

"What do you understand? I don't," chattered the boy.

"No, you wouldn't. You are being led by the key, the key to the pool room. It will guide us to some place of importance."

"Do you know where?" Topsy asked. "No, I do not," Mr. Frog admitted. "But all we have to do is to keep moving."

Wondering what the next second would bring, the two marched on.

Now... Shell makes it possible for motorists to save MILLIONS

See, on this chart, what Shell has done... It may cut down your driving costs many dollars

AFTER long research, Shell is ready to supply it. A new, amazing gasoline—at regular prices—which more than 75% of all cars can use with perfect satisfaction!

In anti-knock value, New Improved Shell 400 is far above common gasolines—in fact, above many premium priced brands. And anti-knock value is the real difference between good regular priced fuels and premium gasolines.

New Improved Shell 400 will give at least 3 cars in 4 full power, quick starting and get-away. Their owners can save the extra 3 cents per gallon. And save on repair bills, too!

For the less than 25% of all cars that need even greater anti-knock value, Shell has perfected Super-Shell Ethyl. It is volatile, lively—a high-test, "scrubbed" gasoline plus genuine Ethyl fluid.

To owners of cars that need it, there is new smoothness, and a real money saving, in Super-Shell Ethyl. More mileage. Lower motor upkeep.

Take advantage of these new fuels. Test New Improved Shell 400 in your own car. 75% will find they can save real money by using it. If your car needs Super-Shell Ethyl, your station man will tell you. Ask about the nation wide mileage test.

5 NINETIES ARE RECEIVED BY FOUR H. S. STUDENTS

Awards in Shorthand and Typing Are Conferred In Assembly

The honor roll for the fourth six weeks of school at the Antioch high school ending March 6 disclosed the fact that four students maintained an average of 90 or above in five subjects. The honor roll follows:
 Five 90's: Mildred Robinson, Ward Edwards, Dorothy Runyard and Charles Reed.
 Four 90's: Marie Shedek, Herbert Zelen, Grace Zelen, Hazel Hawkins, Spiro Kashevos and Marjorie Crowley.

Three 90's: Ruth Mapes, Pauline Shedek, Helen Simmonson, Helen Pachay, Ruth Fredericks and Bill Brook. Two 90's: Esther Anderson, Olive Hansen, Lillian Wells, Leona Nelson, Ruth Perry, William Hughes, Billy Gray, Robert Dickson, Bernice Riech, Dan Williams, Donald Snyder, Joe Pachay, Harold Nelson, Thelma Schlax, Grace Pedersen, Helen McVicar, Bernice Jensen, Bernice Humann and Paul Zelen.

Of the twelve girls of the advanced shorthand class who received certificates of merit from the Gregg Publishing Company, Olive Hansen's specimen outlines were considered the best. These girls are now members of the Order of Gregg Artists.

The other girls receiving certificates were Esther Anderson, Alma Grulick, Helen Pederson, Mildred Robinson, Marie Shedek, Pauline Shedek, Helen Simonsen, Hazel Tweed, Fanny Westlake, Marguerite Gallier and Ruth Mapes.

A number of first year typing students were awarded pins from the Woodstock typewriter company for having attained a speed of twenty-five words per minute. Herbert Zelen, the first to attain this speed, received his award before Christmas; Rose Pederson, Frances Doty and Dorothy Runyard followed; the last group to earn the pins included Grace "Reebee" Lasco, Catharine Bottger, Joe Rokosz, Alice Bock, Gertrude Hughes, Grace Zelen and Marion Cook.

The musical organizations of the high school, under the direction of E. V. Jeffers, held a dance for the members at the school building Saturday evening. The dance was in celebration of the success of the music festival. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria following the dance.

A boys' dancing class has been organized at the high school for the purpose of instructing those who care to learn in the rudiments of dancing. Miss Lillian Schroder has charge of the class which meets every Tuesday afternoon. The first meeting was held this week, with a number of earnest boys in attendance.

It seems that language is an easier subject for the fifth grade than other subjects if the number receiving awards is any indication. Ruby Chlin, Ferdinand Dost, Florence Hackett, Charles Hawkins, George Hawkins, Bernard Osmond and Mary Lou Sibbey excelled in this subject. Nature study will prove a change for this week.

County Superintendent W. C. Petty paid a professional visit to the high school Tuesday.

The results of the second examinations sent out by Ex-County Superintendent of Schools T. A. Simpson, are announced by the Oakland grade school.

Those averaging 90 per cent or more are Grace Minto, Helen Herman, Homer White, James Waters, Margaret Hughes, Jean Hughes, Donald Minto, Warren Sheehan and Sidney Hughes.

Four averaged between 85 and 90—Harry Hallwas, Mildred Cornak, Alfred Anderson and George Anderson; Margaret Pierstorff averaged between 80 and 85.

PEDESTRIANS' DANGER AGE CHART

AGE	Per Cent
65 YEARS AND OVER	87.2
AGE 45 TO 64	22.5
AGE 5 TO 14 (SCHOOL AGE)	17.2
UP TO 5 YEARS OLD	10.7
AGE 25 TO 44	4.6
AGE 15 TO 24 (GOLDEN AGE)	1.

The dangerous age for pedestrians crossing the streets is not childhood but begins at 45 as shown by the above chart according to the Safety Bureau of the Automobile Club of Illinois.

This is the testimony of 9 months automobile traffic deaths in Detroit as analyzed by a University of Michigan professor.

The golden age for escaping autos is from 16 to 24, when all the faculties seem keenest. Counting that period as 1, the survey finds the second best age is 25-44, when 4.6 as many persons are killed.

Third rank the babies up to 5, with 10.7 times as many killings; fourth the school children of 5 to 14 with 17.2.

Then came the 45 to 64 year olds with 22.5 deaths. Lastly there is a terrific jump to the most fearful of all pedestrian death rates, those of 65 up, who rate 87.2.

The reasons for the elders, who are so free with their advice to youngsters, failing to profit by it, may include, according to the analysis, decrease in muscular ability, increase in body weight and decrease in speed of movement, preservation of traffic habits from the days when automobiles were not a hazard; impairment of sensory acuity, a variety of senile effects on mentality; mental abstraction (absent mindedness).

CRYSTAL THEATRE

"Up Popped the Devil," a clever comedy drama, has been selected for the last performance of the spoken drama for this season by the J. B. Rotnour Players on the Crystal stage next Tuesday evening. Many fine plays have been presented at the local theatre by J. B. and his company, but he has assured his friends here that the last performance will be a real treat. "Up Popped the Devil" is one of the funniest and fastest moving comedies ever presented here, according to Mr. Rotnour, who undoubtedly has used his best judgment in selecting a fine play for the final appearance of his company here.

J. C. JAMES For Supervisor

If elected, I propose:
 Tax reduction;
 Water levels on the lakes;
 Work for State Park;
 Rt. 173 through Village of Antioch;
 Put through NOW, no further fooling in the matter;
 Co-operation with the Community Chest, Fire department and Legion;
 NO BOND ISSUES WITHOUT A VOTE OF THE PEOPLE;
 Co-operation with the Village in all matters;
 Co-operation with the Highway Commissioner;
 Better conditions at the poor farm and Lake county hospital;
 Equal distribution of Lake county benefits without favoring the east side;
 Co-operation with the Farm Bureau and the High School;
 FINALLY, CO-OPERATION WITH YOU.

J. C. James

CHASE THESE LOAFERS out of your basement!

Unless you act promptly you'll have these vagrants on your hands until next spring! Leave Smoky Jim and Sambo Soot around and they'll soon have walls, curtains, draperies and rugs ready for the cleaners and decorators. Joe Heavyash and Pa Clinker will keep you busy all winter long. And old Pa Bentback will be right there to weigh down the shovel. Order Koppers Coke and be rid of these pests. It's lighter on the shovel, smokeless and sootless! Phone your fuel dealer

The Outline of Oscar

Oh! It's my things!

Isn't this hat just too cute, Daddy?

-and aren't you simply mad over this coat?

More things for Miss Dorothy, sir!

These shoes were so darling that I bought two pairs!

Isn't this evening dress perfectly stunning!

Oh! - and I a-dore this other frock!

Of course I couldn't go without a bathing suit!

Are you going away some place, my little girl?

Just up to Silvermine for the week-end, Daddy dear!

A parcel for you, Mr. Minz

Why the funny cap?

Oh, for my trip to Europe!

ROSES BRING MEMORIES ETC - BY LINK

YOU BROUGHT ME ROSES, HUBBY?

YES, 'CAUSE YOU LOVE 'EM SO.

?? THEY'RE ARTIFICIAL.

SURE, HONEY, - WHY?

WHY DIDN'T YOU GET REAL ROSES? NO SMELL TO THESE.

NOW JUST WAIT - DON'T WORRY

I'M NOT SO DUMB, - JUST SPRINKLE A LITTLE OF THIS ON 'EM.

? LILAC PERFUME!

When I returned aboard th' schooner from my first trip ashore, up in th' Arctic ice-fields, and told th' skipper about th' mastodon I had seen frozen in th' ice, he was bound to go ashore to see it. So, next mornin', we struck out over th' ice and snow. To save time, I took a short cut, which brought us to th' cave where th' polar bear had chased me th' day before.

Th' skipper said he was goin' into th' cave to see if th' bear was still there. I told him he'd likely get into trouble, but in he went. Nothin' happened for a little while, and I was just thinkin' that everything was o. k., when sam! bang! whang! yar - r - r - l, and out of th' cave shot th' skipper, some of th' hind part of his pants gone and yellin' like a Liverpool packet rat in a mutiny. And right after him was that big bear, lookin' meaner'n a Nova Scotia bucko-mate.

I whanged away at th' bear, missed, and knocked th' skipper's cap off. Th' skipper reached a high ice-cake before th' bear, and was pullin' his feet up away from th' old boy's paw when I whanged away again and knocked Mr. Bear over.

Well s'r, when th' skipper slid down from th' iceberz he was madder'n a tom-cat with a knot in his tail 'cause I had splattered his best cap full of holes when I took th' first shot at th' bear. After we'd had a look at th' mastodon we went back aboard th' schooner. In th' fo'c'stle all hands roared when I told them how I'd peppered th' skipper's cap. I'll bet he'd have triped me up by th' thumbs if he'd heard me tellin' about it.
